ABOUT ME

After rediscovering my passion for web development, I have thrown myself into learning everything I can about HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. My background in customer-oriented-service and creative design gives me a unique perspective when designing websites. I look forward to bringing my enthusiasm, determination, and love of learning to a position in front-end development or UI design.

EXPERIENCE

Flatirons Revisions

Mar - July 2018

Owner, Freelance Editor & Proofreader

Designed & developed a user-friendly website for my freelance Proofreading business, from original layout to final content included. Specialized in editing YA manuscripts and read 115 books in 2018 for genre research and familiarity.

The Tea Spot

Oct 2017 - Feb 2018

Ecomm Customer Service Rep

Demonstrated outstanding written and verbal skills both with customers and when collaborating with other departments. Contributed to digital and printed graphics as well as blog post content. Researched and compiled relevant trend data.

Arhaus

Aug - Oct 2017

Design Consultant

Collaborated with customer and other designers to create unique layout based on the customer's specifications. Applied design principles such as color theory, balance, visual hierarchy, as well as designed spaces intended to be both practical and beautiful.

Ku Cha House of Tea

Nov 2015 - Apr 2017

General Manager

Facilitated all aspects of day-to-day running of the retail & service sides of the business. Restructured visual merchandising layout to improve sales by 15%. Generated and maintained online social media presence. Inspired a positive, encouraging, and supportive team culture.
